

The seal of Baltimore County, Maryland, is a circular emblem. It features a yellow border with the words "BALTIMORE COUNTY" at the top and "MARYLAND" at the bottom in black capital letters. The center of the seal is divided into four quadrants by a white cross. The top-left quadrant is yellow with black diagonal stripes. The top-right quadrant is red with white stars. The bottom-left quadrant is white with red stars. The bottom-right quadrant is black with yellow diagonal stripes. There are also four small yellow stars arranged in a cross pattern in the center of the seal.

Legend

-

